

PEACE AND CONFLICT PREVENTION/RESOLUTION

FEBRUARY IS PEACE AND CONFLICT REVENTION/RESOLUTION

Peaceful lives

Peace is possible ... Conflict causes death, poverty and disease....
 Half of those killed in violence are children and 90 % are civilians.
 Stopping violence... saving lives....healing shattered communities.

Rotary Mission

Rotary through its service projects, peace fellowships and scholarships

1. REBUILD---help refugees integrate and find jobs
2. TRAINING--help leaders learn how to prevent and mediate conflict
3. IN ACTION—supports peace building in communities and regions affected by conflict.

Rotary takes action to address the underlying causes of conflict, including poverty, inequality, ethnic tension, lack of access to education and unequal distribution of resources.

Each year, Rotary selects up to 100 professionals from around the world to receive fellowships to study at one of the following Rotary Peace Centres.

Duke University and University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, USA

Fellows can earn either a Master in International Development Policy from Duke or a master's degree in various departments from the University of North Carolina. In addition, Fellows at both Duke and UNC can earn a graduate certificate in international peace and conflict resolution from the University of North Carolina.

International Christian University, Tokyo, Japan

The Department of Public Policy and Social Research offers master's degrees in social sciences, natural sciences, and interdisciplinary studies.

University of Bradford, Bradford, England

The Department of Peace Studies at Bradford is the largest in the world and offers several master's degrees.

University of Queensland, Brisbane, Australia

Fellows earn a master's degree in international studies and peace and conflict studies in the Graduate Centre of Governance and International Affairs.

Uppsala University, Uppsala, Sweden

The Department of Peace and Conflict Research offers a master's degree in social science. It is internationally renowned for its free and globally accessible collection of data related to conflict.

Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok, Thailand

The professional development certificate is awarded to experienced professionals who complete the university's intensive three-month program in peace and conflict prevention and resolution.

fellowships cover tuition and fees, room and board, round-trip transportation, and all internship and field-study expenses.

In just over a decade, the Rotary Peace Centres have trained more than 1,000 fellows for careers in peace building. Many of them are serving as leaders at international organizations or have started their own foundations.

To achieve these goals, the following District Committees have been formed
